PARK BUSINESS MEN MEET AT A BANQUET

Result Will Be That the Camp Will Have a Commercial Club.

PARK CITY, April 1 -At Society hall last evening a rousing banquel was given by William D. Sutton to seventy-five of the business men of this city. An clabthe business men of this city. An class-orate menu was prepared by Mr. Sutton and to watch the actions of the enthusi-astic crowd present would better tell the way in which everything was appreciated. More than twenty-five toasts were given by those present, and they all pertained to the advance of this city. Many inter-esting talks were made and a great many questions were discussed which will be estions were discussed which will be great benefit to the city in the near a commercial club, and it was to this end that a great many discussions led. Many important questions will come before the city in the near future, and the general opinion of those present was that a commercial club would be the proper organization to bandle questions that involve the general public.

The question of the federal building was freely discussed, and it was clearly shown that unless the citizens got together soon some delay would no doubt occur in securing this building.

The meeting was made up entirely of boosters, and a committee was appointed to draft bylaws and report on April 13, when the next meeting will be held. It was the most enthusiastic gathering ever seen in this city, and a great deal of credit is due Mr. Sutton for starting this innortant movement.

Park City has needed a commercial club for a long time, and it is clearly shown now that we will have a commercial club. Violet, the three-weeks-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Strickland of this city, died this morning from pneumonia. The little one had been ill but a short time, and the death was a sudden shock to the loying parents. The funeral was held today. Rev. Mr. George officiating, interment was in the City cemetery.

CAMPAIGN IN BOISE IS GROWING EXCITING

BOISE, Idaho, April 1.—It is stated there tonight that during the day, while Mayor Haines, who is a candidate for re-election, was passing a crowd of Haines and anti-Haines supporters who were on the verge of betting money on the result of the coming city election, the chief executive stated he would wager $10,000 that he would be re-elected mayor. Now, the reform element of the city is after his scalp in earnest. They contend he has the betting spirit, which is not commendable, and that he should not be elected mayor for that reason if for no other. It is understood his friends are endeavoring to hush the matter up.

All kinds of reports and rumors are aflost, coming from the headquarters of each party, and the air is filled with political electricity. The committees are working overtime, and the city is stirred as never before over a municipal campaign. Betting generally is about even. To an unprejudiced ob-server it would seem that Pence has the best of the contest.

FARMERS WILL CONFER WITH CANAL COMPANY

Special to The Tribune.

PROVO. April 1.—The owners of farm lands along the shores of Urah lake held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the county attorney's office, at which it was decided to confer with the Salt Lake canal companies before any action is taken. A committee was appointed to go to Salt Lake and make known the demands of the association. The rise in the waters of Urah lake, which causes it to overflow onto the farms, it is claimed, is caused onto the farms, it is claimed is caused by the maintenance of dams contrary to agreements and court decisions made in the past. Data as to the amount of damage done by the overflow of the lake has been gathered by the association for years, and the amount of damage is now estimated to be $200,000.

They came back to Bingham and have been working as usual, and it is understood that they had intended to keep their wedding a secret until next August.

The company is blamed for allowing the use of the platform which broke under the boy's weight, and its faffure to supply sufficient lighting facilities at night where they boy was instructed to work.

DETENTION HOSPITAL IS TO BE PROVIDED

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 1.—Finding that a detention hospital is imperative in this city, from the many cases of neglect to translents who were unable to provide themselves with medical attention when stricken with illness in the past, steps are being taken to establish a hospital of this kind with the city and county sharing the expense of its maintenance. In the next few days, it is probable that the city board of health will meet with the county commissioners and formulate plans for establishing such a refuge for those strangers who are frequently picked up in the city suffering from some sickness and who are without funds.

The Ogden general hospital is being spoken of as suitable for the detention hospital and it may be that some arrangements can be made to obtain the building when the Thomas D. Dee Memorial hospital is completed.
